Delivering Guild Accredited and GTi courses

Students are entitled to receive the minimum required number of practical hours of training as described in our course details, please make sure that you are fully aware of the hours required prior to making your booking with us. In some case, additional training hours will be required if Birmingham Holistic Health Centre believes it is necessary before passing the student as competent to carry out the treatment.

We reserve the right to terminate or revoke access to any Diploma course if the tutor believes the student is not participating or meeting the required standard for completion. This applies at any stage of the training, and without refund at the discretion of Director Stuart Morris. For clarification, courses described as 1 day require at least 6 hours of practical training (excluding breaks), while courses described as 1/2 day require at least 3 hours of practical training (excluding breaks

Our terms and conditions states that a charge of £150 will be incurred for each additional day of training required by a student until they meet the necessary standard as determined by the tutor's ongoing assessment, whether online or at our centre. Please be aware of this charge before committing to any additional training sessions.

Certification

Certification for GTi courses is meticulously managed and controlled by the Guild of Professional Beauty Therapists Ltd. After successfully completing a GTi course, students will receive an electronic certificate (.pdf) displaying their name, course title, Training Centre, and completion date.

For those who prefer a hard copy, the Guild of Professional Beauty Therapists Ltd offers certificate purchases. Birmingham Holistic Health Centre also provides a printing service to students who have satisfactorily completed the training program and met our established standards on some of our Diploma course.

Our Tutors

Our accredited tutors for practical training in CMA or GTi, and Guild Accredited Training, are highly qualified professionals who possess recognised teaching certificates. All of our tutors are current members of the Guild and/or The Complimentary Medical Association.
